

Fixed D predictions under a same-release reference-library expansion

Original historical scores are retained separately;
only the two new arms isolate the library condition.

Labels give model-positive / model-negative bp.
New library support is not independent biological confirmation.